FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Today, the Illinois Supreme Court issued their opinion on the case of Rowe, et al. v. Raoul, et al. 2023 IL 129248 (July 18, 2023).

The Circuit Courts of the Eleventh Judicial Circuit, and judicial branch partners, are reviewing the details of the opinion. The Courts and judicial partners had worked extensively since August 2022 to prepare for the implementation of the SAFE-T Act (PA 101-652) on January 1, 2023 and were fully prepared to implement the Act when those preparations were suspended upon the IL Supreme Court issuance of the stay of the Act on December 31, 2022.

Following the review of the Act, all judicial offices will be preparing to implement the ruling and the provisions of the Act on September 18, 2023 as provided in the opinion.

The Eleventh Judicial Circuit consists of the following counties: Ford, Livingston, Logan, McLean and Woodford.
